In this issue we bring you news of 45 pubs in 31 different locations, 4 Breweries and 45 Beer Festivals.

Beer and Pub News

As From Monday 25th July the new opening hours Old Oak Horsley Woodhouse are Mon to Sat 12 til 11pm and 12 til 10.30pm on Sundays.

Andrew Brett formerly of the King William Milford has taken over the running of the cellar so look out for some interesting guest beers.

Plans include running upto three beer festivals a year starting with the first which will be held between the 1st and 4th of September.

Punch Taverns have extensively refurbished the kitchen to be able to serve lunchtime meals at the Jolly Colliers in Horsley Woodhouse.

Simon the new Licensee advised that Punch is looking to introduce Draught Bass as a second real ale in the near future.

Planning permission has been granted to change the use of the Miners Arms on High Street South Normanton. The pub, which has been closed for some years, will be demolished to make way for 9 one and two bedroom apartments.

The Devonshire Arms on Market Place South Normanton which has been closed for two years is set to re-open. We understand that Trish, formerly of the Hawthorns, is to be the new licensee.

A visit to the Royal Oak on Water Lane South Normanton on Saturday 30th July found Old Speckled Hen, Caledonian 80/-, Ruddles County and Springhead Roundheads Gold; Coming soon were Milestone Rich Ruby and Greene King IPA.

The GBG listed White Lion at Starkholmes had three real ales on offer when Half Pint, Tweedle Dee and I called in for Sunday lunch on the 31st July, these being Marstons Pedigree 4.5% at £2.30, Cameron's Creamy 3.6% and Bateman's XXXB.

Real ales available at the Tramway Village Crich for the Edwardian weekend celebrations on the 9th & 10th May included from Leadmill Old White Horse, Splash & Dash, Old Oak Bitter, Raging Red, Moorhouses Pendle Witches Brew and Mordue Five Bridges.

The Old Man reported that Bateman's proposal to change the GBG listed Railway on Station Street Mansfield into more offices was rejected by Mansfield District Planning Committee on Monday 25th July 2005.

The decision which, was heard by representative from Bateman's, was met by rapturous applause and cheers from the public gallery so much so that the chairman had to ask for quite before proceedings could continue.

We wait with interest the next step in the dance, but in the mean time a big Well Done to David Brett and Keith Wells from Mansfield & Ashfield Camra together with the Mansfield Chad newspaper and everyone else who got involved to save this excellent pub.

The Thorn Tree on Chesterfield Road Belper has been awarded the Greene King award for excellence 2005/2006, the pub came joint first out of approximately 780 pubs and is the furthest north free house selling Greene King beers.

Our congratulations go to Sue, Bob and the rest of the team.

A planning application has been raised to change Romans the Keg only pub on High Street Alfreton into Corals Bookmakers.

The long closed Railway Hotel formerly the Golden Arrow on King Street Alfreton has been bought by Speeds Motor Group for redevelopment into a car garage.

Smiling Steve at the Royal Oak Ockbrook is trying out some new breweries in the next few weeks these will include, Durham, Bradfield from Sheffield (Ex Kelham Island Brewer), Newby Wyke Grantham, Townhouse from Audley in Staffordshire, Howard Town from Glossop, Lancaster & Danelaw from Chellaston Derby.

Colin's "Brewery of the Month" for this month at the Cross Keys Belper continues with beers from the Willy's Brewery in Cleethorpes and will include: - Tin Helmet 4.2%, Original 3.8% and Coxwains Special 4.9%.

Simon, Andy & Rob from the Seven Stars Belper informed me the following will be available through July and August: - Smiles Slap and Tipple 4.5%, Hop Back Summer Lightning 5.0%, Marston's Ashes Ale 4.1%, Adnams Broadside 4.7%, Belhaven Choice Fruit 4.6%, and Highwood Tom Wood's Harvest Bitter 4.3%.

Susan Dean from Lake Ilywarah New South Wales Australia visited both the Old Oak Horsley Woodhouse and Old Stables Bar Denby in early July, which just goes to show what lengths people will go to in the quest for Leadmill beers!

Spingo Bragget 6.0% was a rare sight at the George Inn on Lowes Hill Ripley on Thursday 7th July.

On a recent trip to the Hole in the Wall at Long Eaton I found Bass 4.4% at £2.15, Holdens Golden Glow 4.4% at £2.20 and Nottingham Extra Pale Ale 4.2% at £2.20 available. Brewster's Belle Star 4.8%, Nottingham Rock Bitter 3.8%, Hook Norton Old Hooky 4.6% & Taylors Landlord 4.3% all priced between £1.95 & £2.30 were a few of the forthcoming beers. All this supplemented by Various Belgian bottled beers.....A friendly pub.- Trigger

Milestone Rich Ruby 4.5%, Falstaff Smiling Assassin 5.2% and Westons Old Rosie 7.3% were all available at the Moss Cottage in Ripley on Saturday 30th July.

Champions of "Real Ale for Ripley" Nigel & Mo Eadie are rumoured to be leaving the George Inn on Lowes Hill Ripley.

A visit to the Devonshire Arms on King Street Alfreton on Saturday 6th August found Oakwell Barnsley Bitter 3.8% at an incredible £1.40 a pint.

Apparently Tetley Bitter, the regular real ale at the Queens Head Belper, is to be replaced by a Jennings beer probably Cumberland Ale.

Hoegaarden White Beer 5.0% is also available on draught at £3.10 a pint at the Cross Keys in Belper.

Brewery News

Leadmill-Denby

www.leadmillbrewery.co.uk

The latest beer from Leadmill is Dream Weaver 4.3% described as "a Magical golden pale ale".

Funfair Brewing Co-Ilkeston

Dave continues to work on recipes for new beers including Candy Floss, Tunnel of Love and Wall of Death although at the time of writing the ABV's were not known. Keep an eye out for Candy Floss, which is due to make an appearance at the Old Mail House Beer Festival Ilkeston over the August Bank Holiday weekend.

Falstaff-Normanton

www.falstaffbrewery.co.uk

Lalorail, 4.6% which, was brewed to celebrate Dave Lalor's 50th Birthday the Landlord of the GBG listed Station Inn on Midland Road Derby, was voted Beer of the Festival at Derby CAMRA's 28th Derby City Charter Beer Festival.

Danelaw-Chellaston

www.danelawbrewery.co.uk

Danelaw recently racked their first nine firkins of a special for the Royal Oak at Mayfield, Ashbourne called Hanging Bridge, which is a pale/golden 4.3% abv bitter and should be quite hoppy. If this is a success they are hoping for regular orders and thus their first regular outlet. The Royal Oak have previously stocked and sold Cnut and Danegeld.

Del & Rods Real Ale Rambles

On Sunday 3rd July, along with Uncle Albert and several members of West Hallam Rural Society, we started our walk from Highoredish over looking Ogston Reservoir. After a short walk, via Overton Hall, we arrived at the Miners Arms at Milltown. Del & I weren't expecting much (as we remembered it as a restaurant that served beer) and we weren't disappointed. Greene King Abbott was the only real ale available which, to be fair, was in good order (I was assured... being on orange) but several of us who had shandies had to return them because they had been made with soda water. Our next stop was the White Horse at Woolley Moor. Here we found 4 real ales on offer Black Sheep Bitter 3.8% & Special 4.4%, W&D Mansfield Cask 3.9% and Marston's Summer Ale; all well kept...I stayed on the orange detoxing in preparation for the onslaught at Derby Beer Fest.

On Sunday 10th July we started our walk from Blore, just over the Staffordshire border. We followed The Limestone Way to Mayfield and from Hanging Bridge headed to Ashbourne. After a short stroll up The Tissington Trail we cut up to Callow Top Campsite and our first stop the Callow Inne. Here we found 3 real ales all from Haywood Brewery, which is situated there, The Admiral 3.5%, Dr Samuel Johnson 4.5% & Waggle Dance 5.0%. It should be said that we aren't sure if it is open to the general public or just those stopping on the campsite... but we like to live dangerously. From there we headed for the Okeover Arms at Mapleton, it's been a few years since our last visit and we weren't overly impressed but we've been hearing good things about it so we thought it time to give it another try. Taylors Landlord 4.3%, Blacksheep Bitter 3.8%, Hook Norton Old Hooky 4.6% & Springhead Roaring Meg 5.5% were available so a definite improvement on the real ale front but at £2.60 a pint for Old Hooky we thought the prices a bit steep.

Our walk this week, Sunday 24th July, started from the car park at Middleton top. After walking past the Miners Arms at Carsington and the Knockerdown we arrived at Hognaston and the Red Lion Inn. Our first surprise was to find 4 real ales on, Marston's Burton Bitter 3.8% & Pedigree 4.5% and Derby Brewing Co Triple Hop 4.2% at £2.42 a pint & Harris Hawk 4.4%... our second surprise was to find it not packed out with Sunday lunchers (no bad thing). After a long walk...made longer by the persistent rain we arrived at Brassington, Unfortunately the GBG & local Inventory listed Olde Gate Inne was closed so we walked round the corner to the Miners Arms. Here we had the choice from Banks' Original 3.5% & Fine Fettle 4.4%, Bateman's XXXB 4.8% and Marstons Pedigree 4.5% (as if you need telling) we tried both the Banks' brews and then headed back out into the rain.....what was it I was saying about English summers??????

A visit by Me Owd Conker to Ye Olde Packhorse, Kings Newton near Melbourne on Saturday 16th July found the following beers available guest beers Hopback Summer Lightning 5.0% and Cameron's Creamy Bitter 3.6% with regular Burtonwood Top Hat bitter 4.8% all priced at £2.25 a pint. Until recently this pub was supplied by Burtonwood brewery and would have 2 regulars (Bitter & Top Hat Premium Bitter) plus a monthly guest beer.

Now the pub is part of the W&D estate so we can expect to see the regular Burtonwood bitters being replaced by W&D beers. The landlord is still hopeful of retaining a monthly guest beer.

No Bigfoz's travels this month but rest assured he'll be back next month!

On Saturday 23rd July Half Pint, Tweedle Dee and I decided to have an impromptu social and called in for some lunch at the Rose & Crown a Vintage Inns pub on the Main Road in Morley.

One real ale was on offer in the form of Draught Bass at £2.20 a pint. Also available was Leffe 6.6% which, I being the driver on this occasion was told very nice. From here we headed for the GBG listed White Post at Stanley Common arriving at 3.20 pm to find the pub closed (so much for the times in the GBG). Undeterred we pressed on to West Hallam to support a local beer festival being held at the Newdigate Arms.

The pub usually has regulars Bass, Pedigree, Greene King IPA and Deuchars IPA available on the bar which we viewed enroute to the tent in the beer garden.

A total of 10 beers were being served by gravity from barrels set up on stillage, accompanied by Biddenden Cider 8.0%, Westons Old Rosie 7.3% and Westons Perry 4.5%.

Some of the less common beers included Sulwath Cuil Hill 3.6%, Inveralmond Inkie Pinkie 3.7%, Butts Barbus Barbus 4.6% and Cropton Monkmans Slaughter 6.0%. For a first attempt an interesting selection of beers in pleasant surroundings a big Well Done to all those involved.

Chippy Cherry invited the Bald Eagle to North Scarle in Lincolnshire to see the band he plays for perform (all Fired Up, watch out for them locally).

We passed through some very smart villages' enroute with some interesting pubs. On our arrival into North Scarle we noticed several bodies, some of which had no heads on, some with babies and some with both-weird. We arrived at the White Hart/Anglers Rest my nose got the better of me (nothing unusual there) and I asked the Landlady what was going on? "Oh it's Scarecrow Weekend" came the reply certainly scared me, I've had nightmares ever since!

The pub had three hand pulled beers John Smiths Cask, Everards Tiger and Fullers London Pride all served in branded glasses as were the Lagers and even the J20's-nice touch.

PS the band were great, Cheers Chip.

The Tram Inspector goes west

Our most recent holiday (18th to 25th June) was in Dorset rather than Germany, Portugal or one of the Spanish islands, which would have been more normal for us. I was duty driver for the week and, while it cramped my style for drinking, it gave me the major say in where we went. This allowed me to pursue my quest to visit National Inventory pubs (I managed Luppitt and Topsham), and also to inspect the tramway at Seaton (it's what I like to do and I needed the fix). We would normally visit English vineyards as well but there aren't any local to Lyme Regis. Each day we dined out in the early evening and returned to our base in Lyme Regis so that I could get some drinking in.

The two NI pubs:

The Luppitt Inn pub and village of Luppitt are remote and pub opening is normally restricted to after 8pm on Mondays to Saturdays, so visiting is quite a challenge but it is well worth the effort. This former farmhouse with two very basic rooms, offers Otter Bitter in good condition from a plastic pin. The pub is run by landlady Mary Wright, and it is difficult to see that anyone would continue the pub in its current form when she decides that enough is enough, so get there while it is still open. It is worth ringing as she may well open outside normal hours if she is in.

The Bridge Inn at Topsham is a wonderful multi-roomed pub with garden beside the river Clyst. We sat outside to enjoy the summer sun but I had a good tour of the pub courtesy of the landlord who appreciated the interest in his pub. Nine real ales, straight from the cask, were on offer, mostly from local micros. There was also a good selection of bar meals.

The other country pubs we visited during the week all do food and I can recommend them all:

Kings Arms Stockland

A large pub in a small village, offering first class food.

Exmoor Ale, Otter Ale, O'Hanlon's Firefly and Yellowhammer

Shave Cross Inn Shave Cross

A pleasant pub and garden, out of the way in back lanes between Bridport and Lyme Regis. Branscombe Vale Branoc and 4Ms, Quay Marshwood Best

Anchor Inn Seatown

A brilliant location with beer garden overlooking sea and cliffs. Palmers Copper, IPA, 200

Fountain Head Branscombe

A good pub in a very pretty village, which straggles down a long valley. Three micros on offer, but I lost the list.

Harbour Inn Axmouth

An old pub with large garden. Otter Bitter, Bass, Flowers IPA and Original.

Mulling' on the Isle of Mull

When (in the pursuit of other interests) it was decided that the Isle of Mull was to be our main holiday destination in June this year the first thing I consulted was the GBG. Nothing there! I was powerless to change arrangements so resigned myself to a life of cans and maybe Tennents 70/- or 80/- beers. Our nearest town was the main town of Tobermory (better known as 'Balamorry' on the BBC children's programme), so on the first night we made our way there and found a pub strangely called the Mishnish, right on the harbor front. It was busy inside and my eyes lit up when I spied Caledonian 'Deuchars IPA' 3.8% at £2.68 a pint so all was not quite lost. There was a main bar area but also many small offshoot rooms, giving a choice of seating. They also had Speckled Hen on pump. Our choice of this pub was perhaps endorsed a couple of days later when we found that Prince William had just spent the evening there!

As ever you have to look around and since we had spoken to a man who told us there was a brewery further down the sea front this needed investigation. The next evening we therefore called in at MacGochan's Bar, near the main car park and next to a restaurant. This was all brightly painted in an ochre colour and was quite busy on the Sunday evening we called. A quick look along the bar showed a pump with an 'Isle of Mull Brewery' label for a beer called 'McCaig's Folly Dark Ale' -wow! This turned out to be a dark malty bitter brew coming in at 4.2% and costing £2.60 a pint. It was very similar to a beer we enjoyed on the Isle of Skye, from the brewery of that name and called 'Black Cullin' - very nice and to our taste. Also on offer from the same brewery, and tasted later, was 'Galleon Gold Blonde Ale'. This was a bright, pale and sharp beer coming in at 4.5% and £2.65 a pint. We were unable to find out much about the brewery but understood it to be a small operation carried out on the premises and which only distributed in small quantities around the island. Normally only one or the other beer is on tap at the same time but certainly a nice find.

All in all much better drinking than we had ever expected and we shared our evenings between the two bars!

As far as the other interests we did see, amongst many other birds, the White Tailed Sea eagles and Corncrakes whilst on the island! NITDAD

Haddonsman reports that at the Royal Oak Ockbrook on Wednesday 3rd August were guests Acorn Dickies Brew 4.5% and Scattor Rock Old Blossom 4.7% alongside the regular Draught Bass.

The Ex Adman Column

This month we visit Merseyside, and one of the most spectacular pubs in Britain, the Philharmonic, which can be found on Hope Street, Liverpool. Originally built around 1898/99 by architect Walter Thomas for the Robert Cain brewery, everything in this pub, from the wrought iron and copper gates to the gent's toilets, is well worth seeing. There is a no-smoking room (the Liszt room), and the Grand Lounge was formerly a billiard room, as the building was originally designed as a gentleman's club. Magnificent fittings abound throughout the pub, so much so that it would be impossible to pick one room as being more spectacular than the rest - they are all superb. These days, the pub is a thriving real ale house, with up to 8 constantly - changing beers, and is deservedly in the Good Beer Guide. The opening hours are 12 - 11 Monday - Friday; 12 - 1030 Sunday. Meals are served 12 - 6 on weekdays and 12 - 3 at weekends. The nearest railway station to the pub is Liverpool Lime Street. If you are visiting Liverpool and have time to visit only one pub, make sure it's this one.

On Friday 29th July Half Pint, Tweedle Dee and I decided to have yet another impromptu social and called in for an evening meal at the GBG listed White Post at Stanley Common. We arrived at about 9pm ordering our meals at the bar and viewing the four real ales on offer which included regulars Bass and Black Sheep Special and two guests Falstaff Phoenix and St Austell Tribute.

We all tried the Tribute but it seemed to lack oomph so for our second choice Half Pint and Tweedle Dee had the Black Sheep whilst I tried the Phoenix, which were both in good order.

During our meal it became obvious that Friday night is Karaoke night at the Post, which was incentive enough to finish our meal and make a move before the music got too loud.

A quick chat with Vic on our way out then we were on our way towards Ilkeston.

I had heard a lot of good reports about the Needlemakers Arms on Kensington Street so after a quick show of hands we were off to our next destination.

Luckily for us Tweedle Dee recognised the area as it was close to the college, which he had attended in his youth.

We arrived at the pub to find it very full with seats at a premium: The three real ales available included regular Deuchars IPA and guests Titanic Anchor 4.1% and Bateman's Miss Saucy 4.3%.

The Landlord told us that he usually has a third guest on served from the jug but it was still settling.

On inspecting the chalkboard we found this to be Ridleys Spectacular 4.6%.

I'm glad we made the effort to visit what I would consider as a nominee for the next GBG. With the time approaching 10.45pm we decided to stay in Ilkeston and visit the GBG listed Spanish Bar on South Street.

Four real ales were on offer here including regulars Mallard Duckling 4.2% and Hartington IPA with Mallard Quacker Jack 4.0% and Fullers London Pride 4.1% as the guests.

We retired to the comfy seat at the end of the bar to savour our beers and reflect on another excellent evening.

On the way out of the pub we noted the Prince of Wales a former Greenalls pub on the opposite side of the road was closed and boarded up.

Proposed Trips Saturday 20th August public transport trip using a "Derbyshire Wayfarer" ticket to GBG pubs in Buxton, Whaley Bridge & Kettlethulme; Contact Charisma on 07974 171243 for further details.
