Beer and Pub News

The Broadway at Darley Abbey had 7 ales on recently and CPD understands that the owners, Ember Inns, are considered extending their beer range in all pubs to include additional breweries. Let's hope this is true and that other pubcos follow suit

Pete at Amber Brewery informs us "Just wanted to mention our beer festival at the brewery this year - October 2nd to 4th at our new location off Peasehill, Ripley. Featuring a line-up of new, one-off and experimental beers from Amber Ales, Pentrich Brewing and Landlocked Brewery. Unit 7, Outram Business Centre, Whiteley Road, Ripley DE5 3QL"

Dave at the King William IV at Milford informs us "Our next beer festival starts Thursday 17th September at 2.00pm and finishes Sunday 20th September. There will be a total of 20 real ales on offer - the usual eclectic selection, plus 4 traditional ciders. We'll have live music each day, JJ Galway Irish folk band on Friday and a 4-piece rock band from Nottingham. The Cloud Cuckoo Band on Saturday - both from 9.00pm. Doors open at 2.00pm Thursday and Friday, at 12.30pm Saturday and Sunday

Amber Valley CAMRA Update

7th - Final Beer Festival meeting at the Thorn Tree Inn, Belper DE56 1FF. 12th - Survey trip, contact Jane Wallis on 01773 745966 to book, October 1st - Branch meeting at the Wheel, Holbrook DE56 OTQ

Following an extremely successful event last year, the Amber Valley CAMRA festival will return to Strutts at Belper from Thursday 24th to Sunday 27th September 2015. The former Herbert Strutt Grammar School is a grade 2 listed, Edwardian building and its main hall and classrooms provide a unique, atmospheric venue. The beers, ciders, perries and wines will be served from a large marquee (double the size of last year's) in one of the playgrounds. Strutts is ideally situated on the A6 just outside Belper town centre opposite Babington Hospital with the railway and bus stations only a short walk away. Buses stop right outside the venue, which also has its own car park. There will be over 80 ales covering a wide variety of styles and strengths, together with a good choice of cider, perry and wine. We are hoping to source beers from further afield this year, especially from Southern England, which has proved difficult in previous years. Two speciality beers have already been reserved for the festival - a wheat beer infused with lime and coriander and a cardamom coffee porter. We will continue to search for some weird and wonderful contemporary beers to complement the more traditional styles. We are also in talks with at least one brewery about producing a unique Festival Special, which we may even help brew ourselves. The beer and cider list will be available to view on our website www.ambervalleycamra.org.uk closer to the event. From Thursday to Saturday Derbyshire Catering will be providing an assortment of rolls, pastries and cold platters while Barlow's Butchers will be serving hot food, including a hog roast on Friday and Saturday. Soft drinks and snacks will be available at all sessions. Entertainment covering a wide range of musical styles, from blues & jazz to folk & classic rock, will be held in the main hall and one of the upstairs classrooms during the afternoon and evening of Friday and Saturday. Thursday and Sunday will be music-free and there will be quiet rooms available at all sessions for those who prefer to drink in peace or have a chat. Tickets are not required for any sessions this year - just come along and pay on the door but be sure to arrive early to ensure admission. Opening times and pricing can be found on our website and promotional posters and flyers. Admission will be restricted to over 18's after 6pm each day. On Sunday admission is free, with any remaining beers selling at £2 a pint. As last year, Festival access will be from the playground/car park at the rear of the building through the door nearest to Gibfield Lane. We look forward to welcoming visitors old and new to our 6th Amber Valley CAMRA Festival and hope you have a great time with us at Strutts

Norfolk weekender

On the morning of Saturday July 18th I met up with GC, Charisma, HH and Snug Dave in the usual place and awaited the arrival of our mini bus. When it arrived, with Didler already on board, we set off to Nottingham to pick Clive, Jenni, Mick and Steve and set off in earnest. We had a stop at the GBG JDW Lattice House in King's Lynn where several traditional breakfasts were partaken, and a few beers - despite the hour. Beers of note were Woodfordes Wherry & Bure Gold and Wolf Grannie Wouldn't Like It. I went for Woodfordes Bure Gold. From there we continued on to Sheringham and the Poppy Line Beer Festival on the station platform where Snug Dave was ready for all weathers. I can't tell you how many beers were on because you had to buy a programme but I had Austendyke Sheep Market, Beeston Worth the Wait and Humpty Dumpty Red Mill before getting my £1 back from my £2 hire glass and wandering into town with HH. Our first port of call was the GBG Windham Arms on Wyndam St where we had a choice from Humpty Dumpty Lemon & Ginger, Milestone X Anniversary and Adnams Jester & Ghost Ship I was going to try the Lemon & Ginger but it went so had to settle for Ghost Ship. We joined up with Snug Dave, GC and Mr. Bradley and moved on to the Crown on East Cliff to find Spitfire, Wherry, Ghost Ship, Abbot & IPA on hand pump so only a brief stay ensued. A short way up the seafront we came to the Two Lifeboats on High St where it was a pleasant surprise to find Wherry, Ghost Ship and Wolf Lupus Lupus & Sly Wolf on the bar with most of us going for the latter. The final stop was the Lobster also on High St, which we almost walked straight out of due to a misleading beer board with nothing of any interest on it for us. I just happened to have a look in another room and found Charisma & Didler ensconced and Grain Oak on hand pump, so we stayed. Then it was back to the minibus and off to Norwich where our first stop was the Fat Cat on West End St (b-bom, b-bom), which I thought had a good selection of beers on offer until I realised that what I thought was the "coming soon" list was the beers available on gravity, fantastic!! Of the 25 or so beers available there were offerings from Fat Cat (obviously), Adnams, Dark Star, Great Heck, Black Country, Colchester, Crouch Vale, Green Jack and Titanic to name a few, I found Fat Cat

Bitter and Wild Cat in good order. Cracking pub! Back to the minibus and it was on to the GBG Alexandra Tavern on Stafford St where Chalk Hill CHB & Tap, Woodfordes Sundew, Humpty Dumpty Broadland Sunrise and JHB were on hand pump, I went for the Tap. Clive thought it ironic that Chalk Hill had named one of their beers CHB..... Charisma's Half a Beer! Back to the minibus again and Gary took us to the GBG Duke of Wellington on Waterloo Rd where we had a choice from about 18 beers from the likes of Wolf, Green Jack, Norfolk Brewhouse, Brandon, Cheddar, Adnams and Brunswick..... yes, Brunswick, but the bloke behind the bar used to work there apparently. I went for Green Jack Waxwing, which I thought was expensive at £3.30 for a 3.9% but then it seemed to be the going rate. The next stop was the GBG Whalebone where they have obviously had a lot of problems with trouble causing pensioners in baseball caps as several of the group were asked to remove them! It was just as easy to turn round and walk out, the beers selection looked pedestrian anyway! Our little intransigent band walked the short distance to the GBG Fat Cat Tap on Lawson Rd, where there was no such bother and a far better selection of beers on hand pump and gravity. I went for Harbour Amber and Fat Cat Meow Mild and we all eventually headed off to get registered at our digs. After a quick turn around it was back in the minibus and off to the GBG Beehive on Leopold Rd to find Oakham Bishops Farewell, Oldershaw Cascade, London Pride, Green Jack Trawlers Boys & Waxwing, Ilkley Summer and Calvors Lodestar of which I went for the latter. Gary then dropped us at the GBG Plasterers Arms on Cowgate where JHB, Green Jack Waxwing, Golden Triangle Mosaic City, Hardknott Lux Borealis, Humpty Dumpty Lemon & Ginger, Barrel & Sellers Best Bitter & IPA and Poppyland Rhino where on offer, the Golden Triangle was a new one on me. We were left to make our own ways back to the digs so a few of us went to the Kings Head on Magdalen St where we found Winters

KHB & Mild, Grain Redwood and Slate Porter, Woodfordes Nelsons Revenge, Golden Triangle Mosaic City, Green Jack Summer Dream, Dancing Men Cliffhanger and my choice, Panther Golden on hand pump. I fancied at least a couple more in here but Charisma wanted to go to the GBG White Lion, a Milton Brewery house on Oak St, which we found with relative ease. Milton Marcus Aurelius, Orpheus, Cyclops, Pegasus & Justinian were alongside Vale Bullit, Ramsbury Sticky Wicket and Liverpool Organic Cambrinus Solstice. I settled for the Bullit. As it turned out, our final port of call was the GBG Plough on St Benedict St, which is the tap for Grain Brewery but at knocking on 11.00 the place was heaving and deafening but with 3 Grain brews on we decided to stay. I favoured Blackwood Stout over Calypso and Blonde Ash and Charisma did his balancing trick again. HH and I were all for doing another couple of pubs but Charisma and Didler were spent and I didn't fancy their chances of making it back to the digs without a map so we all headed back calling in for some supper on the way. Superb day. Sunday morning, after a good breakfast and a bit of a wander round (just to kill a bit of time) we set off on the first leg of our journey home. After Gary's sat nav sent us in search of another Asda van we arrived at the GBG Stag at West Acre, but before partaking I had a walk to the church, which has "watch and pray" on the clock face instead of numbers - a bit of useless information for you! They had some interesting beers on but a shocking price policy.....£3 a pint, £3.40 for 2 halves - that is scandalous by anyone's standards.....well, almost anyone's. Then it was on to Spalding where once we'd found somewhere to park we visited the GBG Priors Oven on Sheepmarket, a cracking little micro pub (Lincolnshire's first) that had Austendyke Holbeach Rd & Long Lane Bitter, Moonshine Night Watch Porter, Hop Shackle Kinesis, Springhead Roaring Meg and Tydd Steam Chicken Choker served straight from the barrels under the central bar. Clive, Jenni and I had a walk to the other GBG pub in the town, the Red Lion Hotel, but with only nationals on offer they didn't stop but I had a Bass just to tick it off. To be fair it was a damn good Bass too. I also called in the JDW Ivy Wall where the beers of note weren't, I was going to have XXXB but it went, so ended up with something foreign. After procuring some sustenance it was off again, this time to Bourne and the superbly characterful GBG Smith's on North St. Unfortunately my phone died so I couldn't make a note of the 5 or 6 beers, but I had a wheat beer from Newby Wyke, which was nice. Our very final port of call was the Horse & Plough on Long Acre at Bingham, which is now a Castle Rock pub, by this time I'd had more beer than you could shake a stick at, so I had a swift half of cider just to be sociable. Final leg of the journey and Clive, Jenni, Mick & Steve were dropped in Nottingham and I was dropped on the A52, which saved me travelling all the way back from Derby. Thanks to Charisma and Didler for a fantastic relaxed weekend, planned to a tee, and thanks to Clive and Jenni for sorting out the accommodation. The best thing about this trip was that there were no complainers, which makes a pleasant change - Ed

HH's Scottish Mini Part 1

On the morning of July 10th Del Boy dropped me off at Derby train station where I got the 7.44 Edinburgh train which HH, Didler and Ray joined at Sheffield at 8.22 and after a seemingly interminable journey (without a window!) we arrived in Edinburgh at just after 12.00. The three amigos went off to the Scottish real ale festival whilst I - having never been to Edinburgh - went off to explore some pubs. HH pointed me in the direction of the Halfway House, which is halfway up a flight of steps on Fleshmarket Close. I had a choice from Broughton Clipper IPA & Blonde Lager, An Teallach The Hector and Cromarty Happy Chappy of which I went for The Hector once I'd got served as I happened to walk in the pub right behind a birthday party, they did offer to buy my drink as I'd had to wait but I politely declined. My next port of call was the GBG Bow Bar on Bow St, this cracking little pub had Born in the Borders Foxy Blonde & Holy Cow, Cromarty Happy Chappy & Red Rocker, An Teallach Crofters Pale, Jaw Brew Drift, Top Out Smoked Porter and Cairngorm Black Gold on hand pump with the Holy Cow being found in good order. The GBG Jolly Judge on James Court was next and Loch Lomond Kessog Dark was favoured over Cromarty Red Rocker and Pilot Citra Blonde. I had a fair old trek to my next pub, the GBG NI Oxford Bar on Young St, which was a tad disappointing on the inventory front and the beer front with Belhaven St Andrews, Deuchars, Harviestoun Bitter and Twisted and my Choice

Fyne Jarl. So it was a brief visit before moving on to the GBG Abbotsford Bar & Restaurant on Rose St to find Fallen Blackhouse & Grapevine, Cromarty Red Rocker, Highland Orkney Best and JHB, I went for the Blackhouse but somehow ended up with a pint. I inadvertently left the best 2 pubs til last the first being the GBG NI Cafe Royal on West Register St, which is an absolutely outstanding old boozier with Broughton Jeddart Justice, Kelburn Rednitz & Cart Blanche, Edinburgh EPA, Highland Orkney Best and Strathaven Claverhouse of which I favoured the latter. Just around the corner, but still on West Register St, I came to the GBG Guildford Arms and found Stewart Saison des Pluies, Pentland IPA, Jaw Fathom, Cullercoats Rocket Brigade, Pilot Citra IPA, Fyne Jarl, Alechemy Five Sisters, Highland Summer Breeze and Orkney Dark Island. A goodly selection, I'm sure you will agree. I went for the Fathom before it was off to Waverley station where I got the 2.54 train where I rejoined the team - once I'd got in the right half of the train - and we headed off to Bridge of Allan and the Allenwater Brewhouse on Queens Lane, home of Tinpot Brewery (formerly Bridge of Allan). What an absolute gem of a pub this is, well worth walking past! 12 Tinpot beers were on hand pump (and a couple of ciders) of which I sampled 70/-, Pot Black and finished off with Procrastination at 6%.....A longer stay was more than in order but train times dictated and we moved on to Stirling where a taxi was waiting to take us to Sauchie and the GBG Mansfield Arms, on Main St, the Devon Ales brew pub (named after a local mine apparently). 70/-, 90/-, Thick Dark and an IPA were on offer, most being indulged along with 3 steak and ale pies and a chicken in leek and bacon sauce with fervour, and we also got a look at the brewery. From there it was the train back to Glasgow and where after freshening up we all got a taxi - as it was raining - out to the GBG Bon Accord on North St and had a choice from Windswept Marooned, Loch Lomond Brave hop, Broughton Old Jock,

Good Beer Guide listed

Cromarty Rogue Wave, Oakham Preacher, Jarrow Rivet Catcher, Cotleigh Osprey, Highland Amarillo and a beer called Xingu but I couldn't see where it was from. I went for the Windswept (and interesting). The barman ordered us a taxi but after three quarters of an hour we were still waiting and may still have been waiting now if Ray hadn't managed to flag another down. We got dropped near the digs and called in the GBG Horseshoe Bar but after circumnavigating the bar there was nothing to keep us so we moved on to the GBG Drum and Monkey most of us went for the Glamorgan My Darling Lemontime but there was also Nicholsons Pale Ale and Hop Back Summer Lightning. We decided to call it a day - a long one at that! - and retired to our digs (me after having a curry mix). The next day after a good nights kip and a hearty breakfast we wandered down to Central Station (just a few yards from our digs) where we parted company with Ray and got on the train to Ardrossan Harbour but alighted at Salcoats - as we would have been way too early (or marginally late) for the ferry - luckily as we were coming out of the station a taxi pulled up so The General arranged for it to pick us up from the GBG JDW Salt Cot on Hamilton St where we all favoured Camerons 150 over, Brecon Red Beacon and Brewsters Aromatica. Fortunately we didn't have a great deal of time and the taxi driver duly took us to the ferry port where we procured a return for £7.50. The crossing to Arran took about 50 minutes, landing at Brodick, and we had a taxi waiting for us to take us to Arran Brewery and the Wineport. We didn't have a great deal of time (HH managed to arrange another taxi) but we all sampled both the real ales on offer Ayr Uisgedubh Ale (pronounced Ooshgadoo apparently) and Arran Guid Ale before Isla the taxi driver arrived. She dropped us at the GBG Ormidale Hotel where we were greeted by a very friendly landlord. Arran Ale and Blonde were alongside the Ooshgadoo and all were sampled whilst listening to a ceilidh band called Hanging by a Thread, who banged out some cracking tunes and after hearing our itinerary, wanted to join us! The lovely Isla came and picked us up and dropped us at the ferry port and we used the journey time back to get some sustenance with 2 lamb casseroles and a bowl of soup.....not each mind! We had a bit of a wait for the train from Ardrossan Harbour but after changing at Kilwinning we pulled into Ayr where a 5 or 10 minute walk got us to the GBG Glen Park Hotel on Racecourse Rd, home of Ayr Brewery. Three Ayr ales were on offer, Jolly Beggar, Leezy Lundie and Fair Jenny's Jig, of which I went for the first 2 and both were in good order. By this time the weather had turned decidedly Scottish but we had to forge on to the GBG Wellingtons on Wellington Sq where Kelburn Misty Law, Harviestoun Schiehallion and Fyne Maverick were on hand pump. I think we all went for the Kelburn brew but none of us really took to it. A little further down the road we came to the GBG JDW West Kirk, formerly a church and another sympathetic conversion from 'spoons. The beers of note were Stewart 80/-, Wolf Grannie

Wouldn't Like It, Broughton Clipper IPA and Brewsters Aromatica of which I went for the Wolf. Continuing over the river towards Newton on Ayr our next stop was the GBG Geordies Byre on Main St, a busy little boozer that had Ilkley Black & Mary Jane and Fyne Jarl on tap. Continuing on the station our final port of call was the GBG Newtons Arms just a few doors further down the road. This was a bit of an anticlimax as it only had Ayr Fair Jennys Jig on offer, so I was glad I'd not had it in the brewpub. TBC
